Culture Tips: Airline Tickets

Larry: Culture Tips

This Culture Tip answers the question: “How can I save on airline tickets?”

You can usually get a big discount if you buy your ticket a few months ahead of time. Bạn có thể giảm giá nếu bạn mua vé vài tháng trước khi đi.

Eliz: Welcome once again to “Culture Tips” with Gary Engleton.

Today’s e-mail question is, “I travel by air frequently.”

“How can I save money on airline tickets?”

Gary: There are several things that you can do.

First, you can join a “frequent flyer club.”

Eliz: Can you tell us more about that?

Gary: Sure.

Well, all airlines want repeat business.

Eliz They want their customers to fly on their airline most of the time, and not on another airline.

Gary: Right. So they give special deals to customers who fly frequently, who fly often.

On many airlines, you get a free ticket after you fly twenty-five thousand miles, if you are a member of their frequent flyer club.

Eliz: That's not bad!

Gary: Another way to save money is to check for the lowest fares on the Internet.

There are Internet sites that list fares from all the airlines.

You can compare prices.

Eliz: That's a great idea!

Gary: And finally, try to purchase your tickets ahead of time, if possible.

You can usually get a big discount if you buy your ticket a few months ahead of time.

Eliz: Thanks, Gary! That's very useful information.

Now let's take a short break.

SFX: office

Martina: ... OK. So I fly to London on the twenty-third.

I'll be in the hotel by eight p.m. if you need to call me.

Albert: And when are you planning to leave London?

Martina: Well... if the negotiations go well, I'll go to Paris on the twenty-eighth.

I plan to stay in Paris a little over a week.

I should be able to leave Paris by the eighth... the eighth of November.

Then I'm going to visit friends in the South of France for several days.

Albert: And when do you return home?

Martina: I'll probably return on the twelfth, or possibly the thirteenth.

On the other hand, I may decide to stay!

Albert: I won't tell the boss you said that.

Vietnamese Explanation

Trong phần tiếp, ta nghe Gary mách giúp về những cách nói những câu chủ đề để nhớ lại. Có những cách nói như: dùng động từ Plan to (tôi dự tính sẽ...); I'm going to ...hay I will hay I'll (tôi sẽ...). Nếu chưa chắc, ta có thể dùng I should be able to, hay I may...I might... (tôi có thể sẽ...)

Gary's Tips: Future Plans

Larry: Gary's Tips.

Gary discusses future plans.

UPBEAT MUSIC

Eliz: Now it's time for Gary's Tips with Gary Engleton!

Gary: Hello, Elizabeth! Today I'll be talking about future plans.

The English language has many ways to talk about the future.

For example, at the beginning of today's Business Dialog, Martina says, "I fly to London on the twenty-third."

In this case, "I fly" means about the same thing as "I'll fly" or "I'm going to fly."

Let's listen:

Martina: ... OK. So I fly to London on the twenty-third.

I'll be in the hotel by eight p.m. if you need to call me.

Gary: Another way to talk about the future is to use the expression "plan to," as in the following exchange:

Albert: And when are you planning to leave London?

Martina: Well... if the negotiations go well, I'll go to Paris on the twenty-eighth.

I plan to stay in Paris a little over a week.

Gary: In talking about the future, you can use "I will" or "I'll" when you have a definite plan.

If you're not sure of your plans, you can use another expression, such as "may," "might," or "should," as in this example:

Martina: I should be able to leave Paris by the eighth... the eighth of November.

Then I'm going to visit friends in the South of France for several days.

Gary: Martina says she is going to visit friends in France.

The expression "going to" is another good way to talk about the future.

So, as you can see, there are many different ways to talk about the future in English.

I hope today's tips have been helpful!

We'll see you again next time!

Eliz: Thanks, Gary!
